NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission

Easy English

Hard words

This book has some hard words.

The first time we write a hard word

- the word is in blue
- we write what the hard word means.

You can get help with this book

You can get someone to help you

- read this book
- know what this book is about

- find more information.

About this book

NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission

This book is written by the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission.

We are also called the NDIS Commission.

This book is about

- the NDIS Commission

- how to make a complaint about NDIS services.

Complaint means

- you are not happy about something

and

- you tell someone.

What is the NDIS Commission?

We are not the NDIS.

We want to make NDIS services

- better

- safer.

If you are not happy about the quality and safety of your NDIS services we want you to tell us.

Your complaint will make NDIS services better for everyone.

We hear complaints across Australia.

We will not hear complaints in Western Australia until 1 July 2020.

Who can make a complaint?

Anyone can make a complaint.

For example

- NDIS participants

- other people with disability

- friends and family

- support workers

- advocates.

What can you complain about?

You can complain about NDIS services

- that are bad

- that are not safe.

You can also complain about how an NDIS provider acted when you complained.

You can ask us to keep your complaint private.

Private means we will only share your personal information

- if you say yes

- if you are not safe.

Complaints we do not hear

We do not hear complaints about

- the National Disability Insurance Agency or NDIA

- NDIS plan access
 - for example, if you can not get an NDIS plan

- NDIS plans.

You can make these complaints to the NDIA.

How to make a complaint

Tell your NDIS service provider about the problem.

If you are not happy with the result you can contact us.

We will work with you to fix the problem.

For example, we might

- get more information

- talk to the NDIS provider if you say yes.

You can stop the complaint at any time.

We might ask you and the NDIS provider to meet and work out the problem together.

If the problem is serious we might investigate the NDIS provider.

Investigate means to find out more.
